

Introducing a Multilingual Audio Guide for your smartphone!

A multilingual audio guidance system is now available to explain the facilities and exhibitions of the Tateyama Museum of Toyama, in English, Chinese (traditional) and Japanese.

Using this guide, Japanese and international visitors alike can discover the amazing nature, history and culture of the Tateyama area at our museum.

In order to use the multilingual audio guide, you will need the free “Minna no Museum Guide” app, so do not forget to download it ahead of time!
