

Telephone Interpretation Service

from Toyama International Center

The Toyama International Center

will translate for you

If you are a non-Japanese resident who can't speak Japanese and need to communicate with a Japanese person or office about something important, please call the Toyama International Center at the phone number below.

076-441-5654

An interpreter from the Toyama International Center will answer. Tell him/her who you need to talk to and what you would like to talk about. The interpreter will contact the appropriate person or office and interpret during the consultation.

Interpretation is free, but the phone call will be at your expense
